

What is the Global Learning Centre?

The Global Learning Centre is a not-for profit, community organisation providing professional support and resources to in-service and pre-service teachers, other educators and the general public. It consists of a public library based on the values of social justice, peace, and ecologically sustainable development and includes books, videos and DVDs, CD ROMs, posters, games and resource kits available for borrowing. We also have a comprehensive list of website links on these topics on our website www.glc.edu.au including the official global education website at www.globaleducation.edna.edu.au. The library can be searched via our online catalogue link at www.glc.edu.au/online\_catalogue.html. There are also a number of sales resources available. GLC receives some funding from AusAID and Caritas Australia.

Mission Statement

The Global Learning Centre aims to promote understanding of people's shared responsibilities for developing more peaceful, just and ecologically sustainable communities in our world. Global Education promotes long-term solutions to social and environmental problems. Solutions that reduce poverty, connect social and environmental issues locally and globally, affirm and celebrate cultural diversity, and involve everyone.

Loans Policy

All loans are for TWO weeks. Loan Items may be mailed/ couriered out on the condition that the registered member pays the cost of postage and packing both ways. It is the responsibility of the registered member or nominated school contact person to note down the due date of loan items and to return the loan items on time. GLC will not issue due date reminders. Extensions may be granted if the item is not required by another member. Overdue loans attract a fee of $0.50 per item per day. If a loan item has been lost then the registered member will be charged the cost of replacing the item. Members with overdue or lost items will not be able to borrow further items until the fees have been paid.
